Cooke vs. White

For Post of Committeeman in First Narberth District

Arthur L. Cooke will be a candidate in the spring primary of the Republican party for nomination to the place on the committee which was made vacant by the death of Charles V. Noel, who held one of the two committee seats from the first voting district of Narberth. Mrs. Louise V. Cockrill is the other incumbent and she will enter the primary as a candidate for reelection.

Mr. Cooke is one of the best known and most popular of the younger business men of the Borough. He is 37 years old and has been a resident of the Borough for 22 years. He has been a registered Republican ever since he came of voting age. He attended the Narberth public schools and the Haverford school. He lives on Lantwyn lane, is married and has two children. He is a plastering contractor and is treasurer of the Employing Plasterers Association of Suburban Philadelphia.

Mr. Cooke served overseas during the war and is a charter member and past commander of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion. He is a member of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, a charter member of the Narberth Players and a member of Cassia Masonic Lodge, of Ardmore.

Mr. Cooke is now a member of the Narberth Board of Health, to the affairs of which he has given punctual attendance and interested attention. He coached the Narberth football team for five years and has always been active in all kinds of organized work for boys.

Friends of Mr. Cooke are now circulating nominating petitions for him throughout the first district and it is said that they have already obtained an unusually representative collection of signatures from residents of that district who are well known for their alert attention to political and community affairs. They say that he offers himself as a candidate not with the idea of qualifying himself to obtain political preferment, but because he feels that as a committeeman he

Veritas Players

Other Narberth residents in the cast are Paul Good-year, Margaret Leahy, William Newborg, Jr., John McKeon and J. C. Parke.

Supplementary to the play will be choral work by the St. Joseph's College Glee Club, under the direction of Anthony Cura.

The entire production is being coached and directed by Daniel A. Eagan, of Overbrook, who also carries the dramatic lead, in the role of "Judas."

Sponsors of the Catholic Information Society are Henry P. Carr, L. F. Flick, Jr., Joseph S. Dougherty, David J. Lanahan, William Boxman, R. B. McClatchy and Karl H. Rogers, chairman.

Baseball Club

Indorses Return to Two-Half Season and Elects Officers

Opposition to the Shaughnessy system of playoffs in effect last season in the Main Line Baseball League was voted by the Narberth Baseball Club, Wednesday evening, at its reorganization meeting in the Arcadia Restaurant's green room.

In place of top division playoff for the title at the end of the season, Narberth favors a return to the two-half season with the leaders of each half to fight it out for the championship in the fall.

Four new officers were elected, namely: Horace T. Smedley, vice-president; assistant treasurers, Art Cooke and George Phillips, and club physician, Dr. Joseph Snyder.

Re-elected were Ray Cabrey, president.

Personality 85%

of Success, John M. Dugan Tells Parent-Teacher Audience

In his talk on "Personality Developed Through Public Speaking," delivered before the Narberth Parent-Teacher Association Monday night, John Maynard Dugan said, "public speaking is glorified conversation and is an asset to everyone as it gives self-confidence to the individual."

He also declared that statistics show us that 85 per cent of success in life is due to personality and 15 per cent to knowledge and application. Therefore, he maintained, every child should be taught public speaking in the school to help develop his or her personality.

Miss Bessie Drane, nurse for the Narberth School, explained the reason.

can render more active service to the Republican party in Narberth and thereby to the people of the Borough.

His candidacy is said by his supporters to be a natural development of his active interest in the party and public affairs of the community, and that it is highly desirable for Narberth that men of his age and calibre should be stepping forward to assume some of the active burdens by which the affairs of the Borough are so successfully conducted. Unless capable and personally disinterested recruits are constantly found for such places, the affairs of Narberth could deteriorate into the hands of small cliques, such as are deadeadly prevalent in many small towns.

It is understood that Mr. Cooke's candidacy will be opposed by Joseph P. White, of 113 Essex avenue. Mr.

JOE WHITE

White at present holds a state position in the Liquor Control Department under the State Auditor. Before that he was a deputy under the Republican Collector of Federal Internal Revenue and, prior to that, he served a term as Narberth assessor under appointment from the County Commissioners. Mr. White, long-time proprietor of White's Sweet Shop, numbers among his hobbies hunting and music and is well known as the owner of business real estate in Narberth, including the Shea Pharmacy apartment building and the Post Office building.

Recreation

Board Expects 10 Per Cent Increase in Playground Use

At the Recreation Board meeting, Monday evening, Dr. LeRoy A. King presented the results of a survey recently completed by Messrs. W. J. Drennen and A. B. Weatherall, of the Narberth Public School. The study was made by means of questionnaire submitted to the parents of school children and is being used to establish a factual basis of planning by the Recreation Board for the forthcoming summer program at the community grounds.

Among the more salient points developed by the survey was that attendance this year is expected to increase from 10 per cent to 15 per cent. During the last year approximately 600 children made use of the playground facilities, the majority of whom were between 7 and 14 years of age. No change in the average age of those to attend during 1938 is indicated.

Suggestions and criticisms were requested and all that were received are being carefully considered by the Recreation Board in the planning of the 1938 program. Among the more numerous requests were those for the installation of permanent basketball and paddle tennis courts which the Board has believed for some time are a desirable addition to the facilities. Through the generous co-operation of the Borough Council it is expected that these courts will be built in the near future and be ready for use prior to the opening of the 1938 summer play season, the date of which will be announced later in the spring.

Population Census Started

Raymond Millard, borough census taker, this week began to gather data on the density, distribution and type of Narberth's population.

B. G. Simpson, chairman of the borough's Planning Commission, has asked the co-operation of residents in determining the number of persons in Narberth, both of school age and above.

Sectional

Leaders to Direct Democratic Group's Campaign Appointed

John C. Morlock, Secretary of the State Senate and chairman of the Earle-Jones-Mundy-Logue forces, this week appointed sectional leaders to direct the Democratic campaign in the county.

John T. Durbin, Overbrook Hills, again will head the Lower Merion and Narberth workers; Joseph Kane, Bridgeport, will be chairman of the Young Democratic Committee, and J. Wallace Reid, of Lower Merion, will head the Colored Democratic Committee.

Matthew H. McCloskey is backing the candidacy of Charles Alvin Jones for governor against the Guffey-backed candidacy of Thomas Kennedy in Montgomery County, it was learned this week.

Senator Guffey's leader of a county-wide organization, with a nucleus of Federal employees, is Dr. James J. Kane, Norristown postmaster.

Third candidate for the Democratic nomination is Charles J. Margiotti, whose independent following is largely in the county's industrial sections.

The following candidates have been endorsed by the County Committee:

For Congress, Carrol L. Rutter, Pottstown attorney; for State Senate, Francis R. Taylor, Cheltenham attorney and banker; for State Representatives, Joseph Kane, Bridgeport; Hiram Ganser, Norristown (incumbent); Clarence Wrigley, Elkins Park; Mervin Johnson, Lansdale, and Alan T. Wright, Upper Providence Township.

Salvation Army Fund $188,841

Contributions to the 1938 Maintenance Fund for the Salvation Army have reached $188,841, it was announced Monday at the final luncheon.

Horace P. Liversidge, of Cynwyd, guest speaker, stressed the value of the Army's work in the community and praised the generous response to its appeal.

"Red-Headed Stepchild"

is the title of a three-act comedy which the Junior Luther League, directed by Miss Dorothy Elwood, will give at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Narberth, April 21-22.

Road in Penn

Valley Kept Private, With Others to be Taken Over

A report on the accident hazard and traffic control on Montgomery avenue, from Haverford to Bala, made to the Lower Merion Commissioners at their March meeting, recommended that new signals be installed at several intersecting roads, including Church road, Wynnewood avenue, Gypsy lane, Haverford avenue and Bowman avenue.

Widening of the pike to 54 feet between curbs was also suggested together with a speed limit of 25 miles in the school and business areas and 30 miles elsewhere.

The commissioners took no action on the report.

A petition to make public Moreno road was tabled when no property owners appeared at the hearing.

The board decided not to widen and pave Righters Mill road, Penn Valley, in view of objections made by residents, who prefer to keep it untraveled.

April 18 was set as the date for a viewing and April 20 for a hearing on petitions to take over and make public the following: Bracburn lane, Broadacres road, Cliff, Rockglen, Trent, Edgevale and Sheffield and Westwood lanes.

An amendment to the Lower Merion zoning code providing that the township may erect buildings where necessary for the convenience and welfare of the public, was introduced. April 20 is the date set for a hearing on the amendment.

A weekly pick-up of stray dogs, recommended last week by the Board of Health, was approved by the Commissioners.

The Pennsylvania Railroad is making repairs to the Church road bridge, in Ardmore, it was reported. The road will be closed and traffic detoured for a few weeks.

Bids for the two-way police radio were rejected by the board. New specifications will be written and the secretary was authorized to readvertise for new proposals.

World Intrigue

Up to the Minute Revealed to Narberth Women's Group

Fearful, yet fascinating, the tale of world intrigue, up to date even to news dispatches Tuesday noon, was told by Mrs. John D. Gill, Montgomery County chairman of International Relations, when she spoke to the group on Literature and International Relations of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth, Tuesday, in the deanery on the Bryn Mawr College campus.

"Germany has been the main factor in the European movement ever since, made desperate by the terms of the Versailles treaty, she threw herself into the arms of Hitler," according to Mrs. Gill. And today Germany and England are the real protagonists, with their rival systems of government, and England is the stumbling was had Tuesday night when members of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, and the Ladies' Auxiliary held a joint gathering in honor of the post's past commanders.

Nine former leaders and the present commander, Walter P. Miesen, spoke briefly at the social affair held in the Legion Room of the Community Building, Narberth, on the Legion's nineteenth anniversary.

Robert C. Collins was in charge of arrangements.

Arctic's Bishop

IN-NOOK-TAH-KAUB will speak at All Saints Church this Sunday at 11 A. M. and at a special service and supper for men, 6.30 Monday evening, to which all men are invited. The Rt. Rev. Archibald Lang Fleming is the Church of England's flying Bishop of the Arctic, uncrowned king of the Eskimos—from Alaska to Labrador, to Greenland to the Pole. His favorite topic is "The Joy of Christian Living."

A Stone Pile

Was the First Memorial, and 150 Tons the Biggest

JAMES CARROLL

—So said James P. Carroll, of Edward A. Carroll & Sons, the memorial people whose offices are between West Laurel Hill and Westminster Cemeteries in Cynwyd. Describing the progress of stone memorials from the early heaps of stones, and catacombs, crypts, etc., to the present, Mr. Carroll said his company's biggest monument is one of 38 tons, soon to be erected. Yet the Egyptians, without modern equipment, hoisted stones 85 feet high, and some weighing as much as 150 tons.

Mr. Carroll's talk was given Tuesday to the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club, of which he is a past president.

In common with certain other trades, he said stone carvers are dying out, for lack of apprentices, and that stonemasonry is being replaced by sandblasting.

The club's twelfth anniversary will be celebrated next Tuesday, with distinguished guests, and an address by Stan Bowers, head of Continental Mills, Inc., Germantown, who is a past president of the Philadelphia club. The program is in charge of Alvin E. Shull, ex-president and founder.

Reservations are being made now through John A. Miller or A. J. Cliff for the annual dinner of the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club, March 31, at the Wynnewood House.

Speaker will be Ira J. Mills, director of Agricultural Education at the Graterford Prison.

At the meeting of the club March 16 officers and directors were nominated, and it was announced that the club is now affiliated with the National Rifle Association, and that Wild Life Conservation stamps are available for purchase.

Nominees on whom members will ballot at the April 20 meeting are:

President, Charles H. A. Chain.

Vice-presidents (three to be elected): Joseph P. White, Clarence R. Kaaber, Robert W. Weber, Lloyd DuBois.

Field Captain, J. Wallace Goodwin.

All the unopposed candidates are incumbents.

Also at next month's session gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded to members in the .22 calibre rifle matches, and prizes for the largest fish caught during the coming season will be displayed in the Legion room of the Community Building, Narberth.

Members are enjoying trap shooting and running fox target practice every Saturday and Sunday afternoons on the Nash farm in Penn Valley.

Tea Topics

Sunday for Penn Valley Folk—Center and Zoning

Sentiment of Penn Valley residents for a community center and for a possible change in zoning will be ascertained at a tea to be given in the gymnasium of the Montgomery School this Sunday, from 4 to 6 P. M.

While the Penn Valley Association is sponsoring the movement for a community center and country club in part of the Montgomery School building, the actual financing and operation of such a project would be independent of the association and would not necessarily be limited to Penn Valley residents.

Plans for the tea were made at the association's executive committee session Tuesday night at the school.

Another topic to be discussed at the tea will be the question of re-zoning. If residents of the section on the north side of Montgomery avenue, from Gulph road to Gypsy lane, are not satisfied with its present "C" zoning, a petition will be presented to the township commissioners to change it to an "A" zone.

110 Merchants

Will Attend Business Council Dinner Meeting Monday Night

This attendance will be about two-thirds of the organization's total membership of 153 which represents an increase of over 200 per cent, or 109 new members, in the three months since Ralph S. Dunne took over the presidential reins.

Speaker for the dinner—6.30 P. M. at the Wynnewood House—will be Elmer Wheeler, famous sales stimulator of New York.

After his talk there will be a discussion period in which all present will be invited to participate.

A week from Monday night, April 4, the Arcadia Restaurant will be the scene of a special meeting on displaying merchandise. A talking motion picture on window displays, with a discussion by an expert, will start at 8 o'clock.

O'Sullivan Heads Officers' Group

A Free Primary

It appears that there is going to be a contest for one of the places on the Republican committee in the first district and it seems, therefore, to be wise to remind the Republicans of that district, and the Narberth voters in general, that the principle which underlies the system of primaries is that the registered members of the party shall have a voice in the selection of candidates. When the primaries came into being 25 or more years ago they were hailed as a reform whereby the evils of the old party caucus, and the selection of candidates by machine politicians, would be eliminated.

It was expected and intended by the reformers who advocated the primary that there would be contests in each one so that the voters would have plenty of opportunity to go to the primary and select the candidates on their merits. A full and free primary was what was desired and many people have probably noticed that the Democratic State Organization has recently been subjected to adverse criticism because the state leaders of the party apparently were disinclined to permit their followers to hold a free and open primary.

As a part of a free and open primary, it is usually assumed that the "organization" of the party will stand aloof until the voters have selected the candidates, but organization leaders have not always been so scrupulous as that and the practice has often grown of implying that one candidate or another, even in small district contests like the one which is now impending in Narberth, carried with him the endorsement of the organization. Actually any such claim to organization endorsement would be, in proportion to its truthfulness, a stigma on the candidate who put it forward.

We are authoritatively informed, both by Mr. Fred C. Peters, president of the County Board of Commissioners, and Mr. Peter Hess, the Republican chairman of Lower Merion Township, that neither of them has personally endorsed either Mr. Arthur L. Cooke or Mr. Joseph P. White, who are the contesting candidates for the committee in the first district. That is undoubtedly a fact, because both Mr. Peters and Mr. Hess are far too astute to get themselves personally implicated on either side of a small district contest, after which they will, of course, expect and desire the loyal interest of whoever may be the winner. Practical men do not go out of their way to make enemies, especially inside the ranks of their own party.

dent; Ralph S. Dunne, vice-president; Charles Harnden, secretary and treasurer; Gene Davis, manager, and Robert Compton, Ernest Boulay, George Schroder, Jim Stanford and Frank Foltz, assistant treasurers.

Dr. Snyder will fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Frank A. Hancock, Overbrook, last January. Dr. Hancock for many years served as club physician and a resolution of regret on his death was adopted by the club to be sent to Mrs. Hancock.

A bingo party for the benefit of the club will be held April 4 evening, at the Arcadia Restaurant, which also will be the scene of the Main Line League's reorganization meeting this Monday night.

Manager Davis told members it will be necessary to build a new infield due to the injuries of First-baseman Walker, and also mentioned that Catcher Jack Eachus may be missing from the line-up due to press of work, and that Walt Masters, pitcher-outfielder, is being given a tryout by the New York Yankees.

As excellent prospects for berths Gene has Fred Drake, 17-year-old wonder first-sacker from Merwood Park, who had a tryout with the Chisox last season, and Wilmer Bassett, former Penn hurler.

Among Narberth stars expected to shine for the borough again this year are Claude Bailey, Tanny Ralston, Al Herrmann, Dick Lyons and Harry Fox.

A sale of cakes, etc., will be held by the Narberth branch of the Needlework Guild, Saturday, April 2, at a store on Haverford avenue, opposite the Narberth Station.

Difficult Play Brings Forth Best Dramatic Efforts of Narberth Players

"Double Door," as presented by the Narberth Players last Friday and Saturday evenings, was a production above the average for amateur groups. The play itself was worthy of their best efforts and fully justified the evident painstaking care given to it by the director, William Muller.

Ellwood Reich must be given special credit for his excellent scenery; it was not easy to imagine how it could have been bettered in any way. Adding to the atmosphere of the period of 1910 were the authentic costumes, not rented from a costumer, but taken from the closets and old trunks of those who had once worn them.

With two possible exceptions, the casting was properly done and this is noteworthy in view of the fact that six of the twelve players were new members this year. (Nancy Simpson is to be congratulated upon her perfect assumption of the role of Louise upon twenty-four hour notice.) In fact, the entire servant staff—all newcomers—gave the impression of trained obedience becoming the master, of distasteful duties performed with concessions to awe and even dread. Jesse Harris gave the best performance.

Ruth Reich, as Victoria, did a very difficult characterization so well that she will not mind one suggestion. It is made primarily as a tenet of the drama. No character should become monotonous or be overplayed by attention to only one facet. Drama is essentially conflict and even Victoria must reveal, however subtly, that she has a side we could like and approve if she would let us. Her chance came when she looked out the window at the crowds below, but her great opportunity was with Rip and the revelation that her dominating purpose was her jealous pride for the integrity of the Van Brests. A well-written drama always uses shadings of white and black for all its principal characters and must be so played.

By contrast, Marion McVickar literally stole the show! She gave attention to this detail, perfectly changing her mood. The shades of her interpretation, carefully avoiding tempting extremes, were a joy to see. Much ought to be said about her consummate acting as a guide to future productions.

Grace Werner came next and again illustrated another important point in good acting. She not only played her own part, but reflected the effect the other characters had upon her. She was alive to the scene every moment she was on the stage. Rip did not succeed so well. He gave the unfortunate impression of acting only when he was speaking, filling in the intervening moments by waiting for his next lines. It was a detached performance.

Of course George Werner and Francis Mitchell were good. They are always reliable actors and alert to opportunities. Even Hervey Keim and Jerry Casey, with small parts, gave the audience the background out of which they had come and became characters from real life rather than from fiction—a temptation to which the latter might have easily succumbed.

A word of censure for the audience may be permitted. Hissing and audible comments are in poor taste and are no compliment to the actors! DANIEL.

Zone Board Okays Applications

Narberth's Board of Adjustment of Zoning on Monday night gave permission to Joseph M. O'Connor to erect a residence on the East side of Berkeley road.

Frank C. Feise was granted the right to build a cinder block addition to the present Narberth Tennis Clubhouse, for an office and storage space. Mr. Feise also was given official permission to use the club grounds as public tennis courts.

W. D. R. Evans, chairman, presided at the board session.

Narberth School

The Alexander Novelty Trio entertained grades one—eight in assembly on March 17. The trio consisted of Mr. Alexander, Mrs. Alexander and Miss Miller. They played a few numbers on the saxophone. Miss Miller sang a Russian and Indian song and did a Russian dance, an Indian dance, and a military tap dance. Mr. Alexander, who was also a ventriloquist, had a dummy named Chester Gump. He talked with him. He also played a song on a toy balloon and a saw. Mrs. Alexander was the accompanist. They play a few pieces on some of the different stringed instruments, as the banjo, Hawaiian guitar, violin, and a few more. It was a very interesting program and it received a large applause.

From March 21-March 25 is Good English Week at the Narberth School. Mr. Lehman, the eighth grade english teacher, is sponsoring it. The eighth grade will listen for mistakes in english made by other students, and they will report them in english classes.

BETTY HOLLAR.

The playground has been divided into zones. This is to prevent confusion and accidents and to give children of the same age a chance to play together. It also makes it easier to play the different games such as basketball, dodge-ball, volley ball, bat ball, jumping rope, and hop-skotch. A galvanized iron gate will be constructed on the driveway to keep the children from chasing balls across the street. Mr. Drennen is getting bids on it now.

On March 31 and April 1 the teachers will attend Schoolmen's Week sessions at the University of Pennsylvania. This means a vacation for the students. The attendance at the meetings takes the place of the regular county teachers institute.

Look over this list of drugs and toiletries which we offer you at rock-bottom prices.

prizes, firsts in their respective classes, were won this week by A. F. W. Vick, Bentley road, Cynwyd, in the Philadelphia Flower Show competitions for large informal garden and for wildgarden. On completing a three-year course in general agriculture and dairy management, Harold Nordblom, Narberth, Sunday afternoon received a diploma from the National Farm School at Doylestown.

"Homespun," Eric Berry; "Silver Chief to the Rescue," Jack O'Brien; "Bright Island," M. L. Robinson; "Tales of a Chinese Grandmother," Frances Carpenter; "Walter the Lazy Mouse," Marjorie Flack; "Petite Suzanne," Marguerite De Angeli.

Forsythia Glows Yellow

in front of the Goldsmiths', on Montgomery pike, and many a garden-lover reports the crocus popping up. The birds are unusually chirpy this week. Monday was indeed the 21st of March.

Fresh blooming on opposite sides of Summit road, Penn Valley, are rhododendrons mucronulatum—we think that's how Owen Schmidt spells it. There's a purplish bush in front of F. D. Moore and Sons' place, and one that Moores planted across the way, in front of J. C. Butt's.

Cultivation

BEFORE transplanting plants raised in hot beds and cold frames, harden them off by leaving off the sash during the day. If the weather is good, leave off during the last few nights before moving the plants.

EVERY improvement that you have on your grounds is really an investment that can be measured in dollars and cents of increased value to the property.

MAKE THE CARE of your garden a part of the day's routine. A few moments each day will then be sufficient.

LIME IS NOT a plant food. Its value is in correcting a sour or acid soil condition and in making clayey soils looser and more pliable.

IF YOU HAVE an open fireplace, use oak and save the ashes. Hardwood ashes are an excellent fertilizer and when purchased are expensive.

FROGS and toads, hornets, garden spider, dragon flies, are some of the desirable friends in your garden for they feed on both the adults and the larvae of harmful forms.

ARSENATE OF LEAD is the only really successful preventive for Japanese Beetle. Before using, get detailed instructions as it is very poisonous.

EVERGREENS should have plenty of water. Spray the foliage frequently to wash off the dust and dirt and to keep down the attacks of the red spider.

USE AN oiled rag to wipe off your tools after using. The slight filament of oil will generally keep them from rusting.

fertilizers, tools, seeds, in a complete assortment, at money-saving prices.

Hitler backed Japan against England and her Chinese interests, and to his surprise China is holding her own. When Franco wins in Spain, Hitler could enter France through the Spanish border. But knowing all too well that England will never permit him to set foot in France it will be some time before he dares to do that.

Hitler has Austria, but she is a liability at present. If he honors her bonds it will hurt his government; if he does not, nations in the league will fail financially. His driving the Catholics and Jews from Austria means certain economic collapse there, because mostly all of the financiers are Jews.

The Board of Directors will meet Tuesday morning at the home of the president, Mrs. E. W. Heymann, at 10:30. The next regular club meeting will be April 5, when Dr. Daniel A. Poling will speak on International Relations. The Project Committee will hold a food sale at that meeting.

The board and chairmen of committees of the Narberth Club are invited to a meeting of the board and chairmen of the Junior Club, Thursday evening, March 31.

Just Coal-- but SUCH coal!

Maybe you're fed up with claims about coal. It costs you nothing to find that you can save money heating your home—but that's the least of it.

There's cheap coal—most extravagant you can buy. There's good coal. Then there's Jeddo-Highland.

No. . . I'm not just claiming everything in sight. Jeddo really gives more heat from every ton. It needs less attention and leaves hardly any ashes.

Try Jeddo this time. If you don't like it better, go back to the kind you're using. That's fair, isn't it?

School in Merion Closed by Fever To Reopen Mon.

Superintendent Hopes Danger of Contact Will be Over Then

Merion's grade school on Bowman avenue, closed all this week due to the prevalence of scarlet fever, is scheduled to reopen Monday morning, according to Superintendent of Schools S. Edgar Downs.

Closing of the school, Mr. Downs told the Lower Merion Board of Education at its March meeting Monday night, followed seven cases of scarlet fever in the school during the preceding week. He said he hoped the danger of further contagion would be over by Monday.

His report to the board stated that exemption from taxation has been granted to the 7,049 acres of the Clothier property, purchased by the Agnes Irwin School last December.

The board authorized J. C. Kenaley, township tree warden, to take full charge of the necessary spraying, trimming and other care of trees on school property without cost to the school district.

Miss Katherine L. Wetherill Dies From Influenza of Nerves

Miss Katherine L. Wetherill, internationally-known woman athlete and socially prominent daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence Wetherill, died suddenly Saturday at the home of her parents, 341 Woodley road, Merion.

Miss Wetherill, who was 24, suffered influenza of the nerves, a two-week attack which slowly sapped her strength which had carried her to fame in a dozen sports as one of Philadelphia's greatest women stars.

Introduced to society as a debutante in 1932, she had already conquered the part world with her accomplishments in lacrosse, squash, basketball, field key, golf, riding, tennis, volleyball and virtually every sport in which a girl could compete.

Doors were her hobby, and in her apartment at Merion were numerous valuable settees.

One of the most popular girls on the Main Line, she was a member of the Merion Cricket Club and of the Philadelphia Country Club. The Women's U. S. Lacrosse Association had named her as its president.

She graduated from the Agnes Irwin School in 1923 and is regarded as the greatest athlete it has produced.

She is survived by her father, a Philadelphia attorney; her mother, Mrs. Louise R. Wetherill, and a brother, Frank, a student at the University of Pennsylvania.

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at three o'clock at the Church of St. James the Less, Falls of Schuylkill. Interment was in the church cemetery.
